INDEPENDENT SKIRMISHERS.

Permission has been granted Capt. WM. LEE DAVIDSON to raise the above corps. General Ranson desires such an organization attached to his Brignde.

Three Companies of the above description are more effective than one whole regiment of regulars. It is the same mode of warfare that was carried on in the revolution. Let us harass and annoy the enemy in the rear. One more appeal is made to old Mecklenburg and the surrounding Counties. The Conscription act requiring all men between 18 and 35 years of age, to enter the service, has passed the Confeders all men between 18 and 35 years of age, be enter the service, has passed the Confederate Congress. The last appeal is made to all within those ages to promptly respond to this call. Especially of our own descounty let it be said—"Many arred one wall, but thou excellent them all." Or ganise immediately, elect your own officers, arm with shot runs and to the fall.

> Notice to Merchants. FORWARDING OFFICE 8. C. R. R. Co. CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the lepartment, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FOR-WARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that dulies are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 28th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, and IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSE OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE FREE OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expanse, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and warfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, deneral News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the timers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall contine to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. Editor and Proprietor A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER THE TIMES;

THE TIMES:

A large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro.
$2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months,

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and earlich the State. The publishers would carnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abread; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

The Lincoln General complains that it is the first place to which he has been where house has not been tendered him, and he is occupying a tent with a strong guard, in front of which is placed one of the Bridgeport cannon. He is reported to stand in constant terror of a visit from Morgan and his men, having lost pickets every night, as many as eight were taken off, in conse mence of which he got up a pledge which he tried to get citizens to sign, to hang and quarter all engaged in guerrilla wartere. Only six signed it, whereupon he seized thirty of the most prominent of them, and told the people that if they did not sign in twenty days these citizens should be sent to Fort Warren. Halleck Branded as a Liar by on of his own Tribe.

The New York correspondent of the Halleck deserves to be scyled the Majo General Liar of the West. He has now on three occasions, sent on by telegraph the most monstrous lies about winning battles that were ever concocted. He lately innounced that Island No. 10 was taken a d before it surrendered. Controling bout the battle at Pittsburg Land as ever circulated. The facts a second day, the Union army, ont number-ing the Confederates, recovered a portion of the ground from which they had bee driven the previous day, and the Confederates on the second day retired to their fortified position, carrying with them several thousand prisoners. We took no prisoners, and were terribly cut to pieces.

The Washington correspondent of th New York Herald, writes as follows; "Fears begin to be expressed that Gen Halleck may have to wage an unequal contest at Corinth. and that Gen. McClellan must fight a desperate battle at Richmond yet the radicals insist that the war is at ar end. At one moment they are depressed by fears, and at another wild with scheme to confiscate property in States which have not yet been recovered."

Rossa.-Brigadier General French the ficer in command at Wilmington, N. C. has issued the following ofder: The general order issued in reference to the removal of naval stores, cotton, etc. beyond the reach of the enemy, having been disregarded by the owners of various lots of rosin within the limits of the city, i is hereby ordered, that a force sufficient for its removal to some place of safety, or where, if necessary, it can be effectually destroyed, be detailed without delay.

It the owners faill to remove it at one it shall be done by the city authorities a the expense of the owners, and no claim from the owners thereof shall be held hereafter for injury or damage.

TURNING THE TABLES .- The last Abing don Virginian mentions the following in-

A few days ago, some thirty well moun d Southern Kentuckians were making their way through the mountains of Kentucky to Virginia, to unite their fate with he interests of the South, a squad of Home Guard" attempted to stop them, but they calculated without their host, and were taken prisoners themselves, and marched on foot to this place Tuesday evening, and lodged in jall. There are thirteen of them, two of whom are repreented as desperate characters. They will seem to Richmond.

THE PRISONERS TO BE PAROLED .- Orders were received from Gen. Beauregard, says the Macon Telegraph, to put the Northern claim to have belonged to General Shi prisoners at Camp Oglethorpe upon parole.
As soon, thereafter, as descriptive rolls can be made out and they are sworn not to bear arms in this war until regularly exchanged, hey will be sent up to the Federal lines beand Chattanooga, and there turned loose o seek their homes, which we hope they his way to this city Tuesday, on the West Point train, a boy came along selling cigars. Col. Morgan took one, for which he was about to pay, when the boy said : "I don't charge you anything for cigars." Col. Morgan asked why: "Oh," says the boy, "you are that Col. Morgan who has been fighting for us, and you are welcome to anything I have got." Pleased with the answer, Col. Morgan took from a roll of U. S. [Atlanta Commonwealth. HAYNAU-BUTLER LEAVES NEW ORLEANS for His Health.—The yellow fever having made its appearance in New Orleans, the news is quickly followed by the announcement that Haynau-Butler has appointed a man from Maine, by the name of the commercial powers of Europe, it would be better George T. Shepley, military commander of New Orleans, and has betaken himself to the sea-coast of Louisiana, where he imagines, perhaps, he will be more safe, from the fiery indignation of cutraged humanity, and the salt air may preserve his parrion careas from the effects of a tropical sun. Poor, cowardly wretch! He was well selected as the fit tool of the Yankee despot for this humiliation and outrage of the noble, refined and chivalric people who, by the inscrutable providence of God, have been permitted, for the time, to fall beneath his power.

BE CHEEREUL .- We do not like to look nto an eye that never smiles. The good Vicar of Wakefield said: "I have always been an admirer of happy human faces, and we acknowledge that we are one of this class. The lineaments of cheerfulness are always beautiful, especially in the young; for it is expected of them-it is their natural temperament, Gloomy frowns dishe ure brows which should be always sn and sunny. But cheerfulness is a habit and must be cultivated. How! By remembering those who are afflicted-those whom disease has chained, or whose senses have been taken from them, or who are feeling the stings of want and wretchdness. PRISONERS .- Three Yankee prison were brought to this city yesterday from the neighborhood of Fredericksburg. They section of Virginia. When last heard from

One of these prisoners gave it as his opinion that the Yankee army never would get to Richmond. This is the first instance of a Yankee expressing a doubt on the subject. They have an in well a book of the subject.

the 18th Clen on the hill, and the 4th and 1st Texas Re-giments pursued the march. After gaining the woods, which had to be done by marching through an old field, the skirmarching through an old held, the skir-mishers found the enemy and engaged them in the tiest driving them back sten-dily. They came upon any quantity of knapsacks, haversneks, &c., scattered through the ministree of the ememy lay.— In the meanwher the lat Texas came upon them in large lorce, and being fired up on were immediately ordered to charge.— They did charge them gallantly, and in a few volleys of ansketry, sent them scaltering through the woods to their gunboats in close promity. Promiscuous firing was kept up for a while, everywhere a blue jacket offered which was but for a short time. After a engagement, we found on the field sore 100 killed and wounded Yankees, together tith 42 prisoners. Hampkees, together with 42 prisoners. Hampton Legion, which was on the field, but not engaged, (our informant thinks,) picked up some 82 more prisoners.

Our loss was ten killed and twenty-one wounded, as appears from the Surgeon's report of the casualties. Among the killed were Lieut Col Black, of the first Texas. The distress now prevailing in Ireland and Capt Decatur, Our wounded were is likely to increase the average of emigra. all brough off the field by us, as were the tion which has lately been somewhat enemy's wounded, and all came to Rich-check by the American war.

This little skirmish, which was no that we had a forter of 30,000 troops on the field white the 20,000. The prisoners field while York, and 1st Califorwere finely resiments posted of incounter, but who were it seems utacid to come out.

Progress of Events. Late threign news which came to us through Northern papers, (says the Savan-nah News) indicate that the subject of intervention is still the topic of discussion in Europe. A is difficult to conclude, from the abstract which reach us, through the Northern papers, whether the cause of the Confederacy stands really any better in tervention that we have yet seen. It is evident that McClellan has arrived at that point in his operations a which he must stop. He has performed the first part of the celebrated feat in which the King of France gorthe start of him. He has marched up the hill and may soon make up his mind to merch down again.

The summerhas caught the Federals or the Gulfand is a condition to suffer by prove their advantages. Matshall and Heth have been bagging a few of the enemy, and Stonewall Jackson has been accounting for sundry others. Our troops in Western Tennessee, between the Miss. issippi and l'enneage rivers, have been at work upon every marauding party that has Corinth, and they have not been able to mite their flotillas on the Mississippi-Yellow Jack is beginning to talk, and upon the whole things are really better than in former times when they looked better. This summer is the time to make our strike and the back of the invasion will be broken, the coils of the anaconda dislocated and he pressure destroyed. Let us keep up stort hearts and all will be well, and trust to no news foreign or domestic, that reaches to through Northern chan-nels. At least we ought to sift it thoroughly, and then be wary of acting on it.

From the Petersburg Express of the 23d we learn that the Federals have occupie Suffolk in large force. Their pickets extend six miles from the town towards Petersburg. "Their marsuding parties extend out for miles in every direction, stealing bacon, poultry, eggs, pigs, and everything else of value." "Several prominent citizens (continues the Espress) have been division. This is the first intimation we be arrested and thrown in jail for the simple have had of this General's being in that cause that they are known to be loyal to the Southern Confederacy. Mr. Benjamin Smith, ot Suffolk, has been confined be cause he spoke authoritatively to his own servant, and others have been similarly treated for like trivial offences. This is

There is one thing I feel snapred of a owed the white feather will do all it air power to attract attention for them wes. I had perhaps a dozen officers ar reated for cowardica in the first day's fight.
These men are necessarily my enemies. As to the talk about a surprise here, nothing ould be more false. If the enemy had sent to word when and where they would attack us; we could not have been better prepared.'
Thus we have it from the Dehest officia therity that the enemy were fully pre-red for our assent at Shiloh, but not withstanding were driven like chaff by the wind before the fierce assault of our comparacively small force.

We see advertisements in some of our State papers offering $500 for substitute to take the place of conscripts. From a gentleman just from Richmond and Rateigh, we learn that substitutes command un ten to fifteen hundred dollars.

No charges have been preferred against them, but they are in close confinement.
